Dear Bill,

I wasn't thinking clearly in this letter to Slater, who has been very helpful in several way. So, if you did not send it to him, will you, please? Thanks,

I enclose the beginning of what I'm writing. It gives you a slight idea of what I'll be saying. I've more roughed out in paper.

If you see any mdntion of that business of all the admirals and generals and what they agreed to, under US leadership, I'd like to know. I know of no story on what Butler said. Even where he said it.

I've written for all they can let me have and I've the story the Post alone ran `and mgy have put on its syndicate ~~xxx~~ wire. I also have their pads, two, Post and NY Times.

The retyping has slowed down much with finals here.

The Prouty book is retyped and I've given that woman the corrections.

Dennis willl soon be traipsing.

Thanks and best,

Harold
